Understanding Hospice and Advanced Directives

Do you have questions about advance directives or what hospice care provides?

Discover answers to your questions at this presentation about hospice care ranging from how it works, how it's paid for, and how you get started. It will provide an understanding of how hospice can ease the burden when a patient is faced with the decision of how to spend their last moments.

The presentation will also discuss advanced directives and the importance of having this critical conversation with your loved ones. Tools will be provided to help navigate those conversations. Advanced directives can help ease the burden your loved ones face when they must make decisions for you. They will be confident they are following your wishes and not left trying to determine what your wishes are.

When: Monday, August 28, 2023
