

News Release for Immediate Release or Next Issue
Sonia Cooper, Extension Agent: Nutrition, Food Safety and Health
River Valley Extension District
01/14/2019

K-State Research and Extension River Valley District is accepting applications for a Nutrition Educator for the SNAP-Ed (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Education). This Nutrition Educator position provides nutrition and healthy lifestyle information and education programs to individuals in various locations throughout the River Valley Extension District – Clay, Cloud, Republic, and Washington counties. Programs presented describe healthy choices within the parameters of various government based programs and why those choices are important for a healthy lifestyle.

This position is 40 hours per week with a minimum qualification of a bachelor's degree in a closely related field such as nutrition, youth development, education, social work, or family studies and human services. Applicant must have a valid driver's license, proof of insurance, and reliable transportation. This position is grant funded with no guarantee of employment beyond the end of the grant period of September 30, 2019. Applications materials include cover letter, resume, and three professional references. Apply on-line at: <http://careers.k-state.edu/cw/en-us/job/506519?lApplicationSubSourceID>. Applications are due on or before February 1, 2019.

For more information, contact Sonia Cooper, Food Safety, Nutrition, and Health Agent by calling (785) 325-2121 or by email at srcooper@ksu.edu. Kansas State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer of individuals with disabilities and protected veterans and actively seeks diversity among its employees. In connection with your application for employment, Kansas State University will procure a Background Screen on you as part of the process of considering your candidacy as an employee.

-30-

K-State Research & Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.