KSU Online Cattle Marketing Program

K-State Research and Extension, along with several Extension Districts in North Central Kansas, are conducting an ONLINE program to help producers with cattle marketing and end-of-year tax considerations. This program will be held on Tuesday, December 15th at 7:00 p.m. There is no cost to join. There will be two main speakers for this program. The first speaker will be Glynn Tonsor, Agriculture Economist for K-State Research and Extension. Glynn will discuss selling wintered calves, the subsequent spring, and selling calves at weaning in the fall. The second speaker will be Clay Simons, Executive Agriculture Economist for Kansas Farm Management Association. Clay will be discussing end-of-year tax considerations for cattle producers. After each session, we will be hosting a question and answer dialogue for the participants. If you are unable to join, we will record the session so you can view it later.

To join the “virtual” meeting go to www.bit.ly/ksucattle and provide us your name and email. A link will then be sent to the email that you provide to join the meeting on December 15th. If you need help signing up, contact any of the Extension Offices in the following Districts of Central KS, Cottonwood, Midway, Post Rock, or River Valley.

If you have questions, please contact Brett Melton by calling 785-243-8185 or by emailing bmelton@ksu.edu.
