

News Release for Immediate Release or Next Issue
Deanna Turner, Extension Agent: Family & Consumer Sciences, Aging Programs
River Valley District
10/4/2019

Fall Fling Columbus Day

Bring back memories as you look at vintage treasures, hear a local author share how she turned her storytelling into writing romantic suspense books, and discover how a fresh coat of paint can perk up your living area. All of this will be presented at the upcoming Extension Fall Fling on Monday, October 14th from 10:30 a.m.-2:15 p.m. at the 4-H Conference Center at the Clay County Fairgrounds. The fairgrounds are located in the southeast corner of Clay Center. Registration, coffee and tea will begin at 10:30 a.m.

The morning program will include Deb Charest on “Collecting Treasures” and author Linda Siebold on “Kansas Romantic Suspense.”

Bring a salad and serving spoon to the meeting for the noon salad luncheon. Refrigeration will be provided along with tableware and a beverage. Enjoy the fellowship over lunch.

The excitement continues at 1:00 p.m. as Jasmine Hensley shows how she paints the town and surrounding communities in “Color Coordinations”.

A drawing for door prizes will be conducted at the end of the program. The Clay County Homemaker Extension Units and K-State Research & Extension River Valley District are sponsoring this free program. For more information, contact District Extension Agent Deanna Turner by calling 785-632-5335. All interested men and women in the area are invited to the program.

-30-

K-State Research & Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.