

News Release for Immediate Use or Next Issue
Kelsey Hatesohl, Horticulture Extension Agent
River Valley Extension District
April 27, 2020

Horticulture Hot Topics Webinar Series to be held on Thursdays in May

River Valley Extension District is partnering with the Post Rock District to offer a Horticulture Hot Topics webinar series. This webinar series will be held over Zoom on May 7th, 14th, 21st, and 28th.

This webinar series will provide information about seasonal horticulture hot topics. The first seminar on May 7th is Herbs-From Seed to Seasoning, starting at 3:00 p.m. The second seminar on May 14th is Lawn Care Basics for Kansas, starting at 3:00 p.m. The third seminar on May 21st is Veggie Gardening 101, starting at 7:00 p.m. The final seminar on May 28th is Dealing with the Dreaded Bagworm, starting at 7:00 p.m.

This event is offered at no cost and is open to the public. Pre-registration is required for this free event. Registration is required by 4:00 p.m. the day before the webinar. To register you can email Horticulture Extension Agents Cassie Homan (choman@ksu.edu) or Kelsey Hatesohl (khatesohl@ksu.edu) to secure your spot.

-30-

K-State Research & Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.