Building Blocks of Babysitting Offered

Caring for a child is a big responsibility. Whether babysitting for a family member, friend, or neighbor, Building Blocks of Babysitting prepares youth for the task.

The Family and Consumer Sciences Extension Agents in the River Valley Extension District are hosting four babysitting classes for youth, 5-8th grade, that are interested in learning skills, tips, and techniques to increase their babysitter knowledge and skills.

Topics covered will include child development, basic first aid, emergency procedures, activity ideas, food preparation, business practices, and more!

Youth may attend any one of the Building Blocks for Babysitting classes held in the River Valley Extension District.

- Friday, March 11th, 4-H Building, Belleville, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Monday, March 14th, FNB Bank Meeting Room, Washington, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 16th, 4-H Conference Center, Clay Center, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Friday, March 18th, Cloud County Resource Center, Concordia, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

The cost to attend is $10 per youth and will include snacks, lunch, educational materials, and supplies to start their babysitting journey. The fee is payable the day of the event to the River Valley Extension District.

Register online at https://bit.ly/2022babysitting or by calling any of the four River Valley Extension District Offices by Friday, March 4th. Any questions may be directed to Monica Thayer, Family Resource Management Extension Agent, at 785-527-5084 or mthayer@ksu.edu.
